IN THE VALLEY OF DRY BONES

“The hand of Jehovah was upon me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of Jehovah, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones... Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off” (Ezek. 37:1, 11).

How many sermons has one heard on this passage of scripture? There have been songs written on it, as well as endless warnings to churches not to become a valley of dry bones.

This vivid depiction from the book of Ezekiel speaks how far away God's people had swayed. They had become complacent dried up skeletal remains of what they once were.

Their hope was lost, not because God gave up on them; but they gave up on God. As Christians, we need to learn the lesson presented. We need to stay clear of the valley of doubt and despair, and keep hold of the hand that leads us through life.
