You know it's time to leave when a preacher preaches on guilt, and he is the only one who feels guilty.

THE LOSS OF A PET

Recently, Joy Fife lost her loving pug. Anyone of us who have had pets realizes the sorrow that comes with such a loss. In the story of the rich man and Lazarus, the poor diseased Lazarus was only shown compassion from the dogs that licked his sores (Luke 16:21).

What makes a pet so valuable is that unconditional love that is not often found among humans. When we are sad, it is our pets who seem to comfort us without saying a word. And when danger is sensed, they are the ones who will fend off an attacker or place themselves in harm's way to protect us.

How many senior citizens, who have lost a spouse, have found comfort in a pet? No! They cannot take the place of our husbands, wives, and children; but they can aid us in our healing.

Sadly, there is no heaven for our pets, but there are memories. The memory of barking in the air, and cuddling in the cool of night. The remembrance of a loving friend who made life just a little easier to bear!
