THE POWER OF PRAYER

Every military intelligence personal understands what a "critic" is. It is when information has been verified that demands that the President be notified within a certain amount of time. Imagine something so important that the President of the United States answers the phone. As Christians, we have a direct line to God. David proclaimed, " But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him" (Psa. 4:3). As saints every message we send to God is a "critic." He wants to hear us, and aid us, not only in times of trouble, but at all times.

When a Christian understands this privilege, his life becomes more enriched. He or she will find pleasure in entering God's sacred chambers and conversing with Him.

So take more time to pray. Fall to your knees in the privacy of your closet and open up to the God who loves you so. If a tear must fall then let it fall, or if joy arises then let it arise. He will hear you. He will respond to you. And He will grow closer to you!
