“In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live” (2 Kings 20:1). As the stories goes, Hezekiah cried and pleaded with the Lord who in turn added fifteen years to his life.

Don't miss the importance of this event. The prophet came and told the king that his life was soon over, and he was to take care of the things necessary in his house to prepare for it.

We all need to comprehend that our day is coming when we will stand before the judgment bar of Christ. And on that day, we better have our house in order.

In Luke 12:13-21, Jesus preaches the parable of the rich fool. He was not condemned for his riches. It is nowhere stated that he was an evil man. Neither was he dishonest. His condemnation came because he did not set his spiritual affairs in order. Because of his investments and greediness to succeed financially, he had no time, nor did he put forth the effort, to worship and serve God.

So, the question is asked, “What if today was your last day?” What changes would you make? What would you change to prepare yourself for that moment in time?
