"He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it" (Matt. 10:39). How often do you hear young people say, "I am searching for my place in life." For some they turn to drug and alcohol and wind up in homeless shelter or on the streets.

For others they pursue a career in the professional arts hoping that fame and fortune will bring them happiness. Yet, in the end they to wind up lonely and discouraged.

Then there is that young energetic lad that was raised to serve God. His career is secondary. And what money he earns he provides for God and his family. His world is about sacrifice, dedication, and joy.

There are several we read about in the Bible. Young David who slew a giant as a teenager. Then there is Timothy who was mentored by the apostle Paul. And how about the lad with the sack lunch who through the miracle of Jesus fed over five thousand people?

Yes, it is difficult to find one's place in life, but the best place to be is in the kingdom serving the true and living God.
