"Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer. Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not" (Psa. 17:4, 5). The psalmist speaks of the conduct of men. Their conduct and wickedness is spoken of as their works.

Paul made a similar proclamation when he said, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places" (Eph. 6:12).

As God lays before us a sacred path, Satan constructs detours to lead us away from Christ. The construction workers may be our good friends, or a family member. Through insults, contentions, and unsound words, some of the strongest members fall.

Our greatest tool is the word of God. And our brave protector is none other than Christ. Howbeit, we must be aware of the tactics of Satan. Paul wrote, "Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?" (2 Cor. 13:5). Why? "Because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour" (1 Pet. 5:8).
