"Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come" (Matt. 24:40-42).

The news reported recently that over one hundred Americans were left behind in Afghanistan. Their fate is in the hands of the Taliban. As terrible as this is, it does not compare with what is recorded in Matthew 24.

Jesus speaks of the His second coming when the dead shall rise, and the living shall be separated. The righteous will be lifted up into the clouds with Christ, and the wicked will be left behind.

Left behind on that day is final. There is no hope of rescue nor reuniting with loved ones. There will be no planes on the runway, nor powerful men pleading their cause.

It will not be the Taliban who hold the lost souls captive, but the powerful hand of God. A loving and caring Father who must live up to His promise of punishing those who refuse to obey and follow His Son.

Hence, let's make sure with have a boarding pass for the trip to the clouds.
