LOOKING ACROSS THE GULF

In Luke 16:19-31, the Lord presents the parable of the Rich man and Lazarus. The sadness of the man staring into the gloom of being lost. He reminds each and everyone of us how so many will be lost and very few will be saved.

The motivating reality in this parable is that the rich man represents many of our loved ones. People whom we cared for, loved, and have fond memories. They were good grandparents, uncles, cousins, and friends. They never cheated on their taxes, or sought to mistreat anyone. They protected their families, and attempted to live good lives, but they failed.

Their failures aimed at refusing to respond properly to the Lord's invitation. Some saw no need to be baptized. Others found no profit in attending services. And there will be others who served their particular denomination with zeal and enthusiasm. They enjoyed the concerts, the liberalism, the path which seemed so right but led to the pit of despair and heartache.

Yes! We will all know a great multitude of family, friends, and neighbors who will not enjoy the blessed reward that comes to the righteous. They will suffer in a devil's hell. The burning of their eternal spirits should move us to herald out the name of Jesus. For none of us want to hear other's say, "You never mentioned Him to me!"
