I've always liked the song, “Why Me Lord?” It was written and performed by Kris Kristofferson. I believe we can all relate to the verse which reads, “Why me Lord, what have ever done to deserve even one of the blessings you given?”

The book of Psalms begins with, “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful” (Psa. 1:1). No doubt, if one would abide by these basic principals, he or she would be much better off.

However, what a about the person who tries so desperately to be faithful but is crippled by disease or other ailments? I think so often of Job sitting in a garbage dump and opening up the boils on his skin to allow the worms to exit. He never deserved his ailments and inflictions.

Sometimes our afflictions aids us in our faithfulness. They make us realize that we are vulnerable. They make us see how dependent on God we should be. When Manasseh was chained and taken to Babylon, he repented of his sins. The Bible states, “And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers” (2 Chron. 33:12).

So whether we are suffering some ailment, or feeling discouraged, we should think about the place promised to the faithful. A place without pain, suffering or distress.
