HAS TECHNOLOGY MADE US BETTER?

Solomon wrote, “Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?” (Eccl. 6:11). We live in a world where everything has a remote control. Technology has advanced to a point that one can control the lights and television while dining at his or her favorite restaurants.

And what about cell phones? Children carry them into their classrooms texting while the teacher orates a lesson. We are raising a generation that spends their time looking down instead of up. While they should seek to learn of God, they seek to advance their technological skills.

Paul writes, “And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord” Eph. 6:4). And Solomon exclaims, “Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it” (Prov. 22:6). Both of these verses place the responsibility of raising a child in the hands of the parents. Hence, if a child has a cell phone it is reasonable to assume that the parents purchased it.

The solution, no doubt, is better parental guidance centered on Jesus. He provides the necessary tools in His inspired book to make the home safe and sound!
