WHAT WOULD JESUS SAY?

Imagine if Jesus were alive today, and He was invited to your house for dinner, what things would he say? Without a doubt He would formally greet you with "Shalom." And when the meal was served, He would say the most beautiful prayer for the food, and engage in conversation.

I believe He would tell you that He loved you, and then, ask the same question He asked Peter, "do you love me?" (Jn. 21:15-17).

Your heart may flutter thinking about all those services you failed to attend. You may recall your use of profanity around the fellas at work, And even the bad treatment of your spouse in the privacy of your own home.

The problem we face when gazing into our Master's eyes is that truth does not evade Him. He was there every time the doors for worship were opened, but you weren't. He was listening when you used filthy language at work. And every hurtful word you said to your spouse echoed through the great hall of heaven and landed into the ears of the holy trinity.

From reading the gospels, we have a pretty good concept of the way Jesus approached others. He was loving, sincere, honest, and demanding. His directness would eventually lead Him to the cross. His questions were stimulating and sometimes provoking. He pulled no punches. And He never compromised His mission.

In conclusion, keep in mind that every step you take, every profane word uttered, and every mistreatment of other is seen and heard by our Lord Jesus.
