“But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light” (1 Pet. 2:9). The word “peculiar” is used seven times in the KJV. Howbeit, the concept behind this adjective can be found in three passages: “Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine” (Exodus 19:5). “For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth” Deut. 14:2). “And the LORD hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldest keep all his commandments” (Deut. 26:18).

To the Hebrew nation in order to maintain this place of honor they were to obey and keep God’s commandments. And though we know the old law was nailed to the cross, many of the teachings of the old carry over to the New Testament church.

Paul addressed the privilege of being chosen, honored, and called out of darkness. Note that the light is deemed marvellous.” This word is used 24 times in the sacred scriptures. Its first use is found in 1 Chronicles 16:12. It reads, “Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth.” This was a declaration of praise as David had the ark placed in a tent.

Every Christian should rejoice for God has greatly blessed us, not only with the physical necessities, but with the challenge of being a holy priesthood!
